

2. "Brotherhood of Thieves"

(From the musical "Robin in the Hood", music and lyrics by Bob Janas, copyright © 2006)

Bob: In the wood we're livin' good
A brotherhood of thieves
Man to man, we take a stand
"Deliver, would you, please?"
When a merchant prince passes by
His purse we'll pinch before he can fly
Life is good

Bob/Will: Living in the wood
All: As a brotherhood
We're a brotherhood of thieves

Bob: Whatever will we do when the Sheriff's men
Attempt to hunt us down in our forest den?

Much: We'll give 'em all what for
Bob: If they're a score or more?
Will: They'll still be beggin' for mercy on their knees
Will/Much: We do what we please
All: 'Cause we're a brotherhood of thieves

(Instrumental)

Bob: You know Sherwood is ever our home
Much: Together we're never alone
Will: Life is good
All: Living in the wood, as a brotherhood
There's no other wood like Sherwood
We're a brotherhood of thieves
