

“7. Sammy’s on Your Side”

(From the musical "Burger Guy", music and lyrics by Bob Janas, copyright © 2003)

Sammy:

My name is Sammy Slye, and honey, I’m the one
And only Burger Guy with a bun that’s full o’ fun
I’m meaty, big and beefy, the FDA approves
I know you will believe me when I show you my moves

So if you’ve got a taste for somethin’ good ‘n hot
Well, it would be a waste not to check out what I’ve got You’ll find me on the griddle, a-sizzlin’ with heat
And fillin’ up your middle with a quality treat

So if you want somethin’ yummy, tell you no lies
You can fill your tummy with burgers and fries
And when you put down your money, you’ll be satisfied
‘Cause you know that Sammy’s on your side

The customers adore me, that’s the reason
They’re comin’ back for more because I please ‘em
So place a special order, and you know that I’ll
Serve you with a smile

(Instrumental verse.)

Sammy:

You can walk right out that door, but soon you’ve realized
You’re comin’ back for more, because I’m super-sized!
You’re samplin’ my menu of sandwiches and shakes
You’re gonna love the venue, ‘cause I got what it takes

So if you want somethin’ yummy, tell you no lies
You can fill your tummy with burgers and fries
And when you put down your money, you’ll be satisfied
‘Cause you know that Sammy’s on your side...oh, my

Try a little Sam, I ain’t talkin’ Spam
A wham, a bam, and then you’ll thank me, ma’am
Manhattan to Miami, you know that Sammy’s on your side
Oh, yeah
