

13. "Only a Woman Knows"

(From the musical "Tropic Delight", music and lyrics by Bob Janas, copyright © 2011)

Martina: Only a woman knows
What it takes to make a woman feel whole
From Sappho descending, through time never-ending
Transcending your very soul
Only a woman knows
What's needed to feed a womanly glow
For stoking the fires, provoking desires
Inspiring them to grow
Showing how much, or how little, to touch
Knowing that such is the key
Subtly tease from her lips to her knees
Arousing sensations that please
Only a woman knows, only a woman knows
How to awaken the passion within her soul

Martina: Every woman feels
There's a sensual secret a female conceals
And soon you will give in to fruit that's forbidden
What's hidden will be revealed
No man could know how it feels to be so
Completely aglow with a fire
Stirring inside there's a yearning that hides
Burning alive with desire
Only a woman knows, only a woman knows
How to awaken the passion within your soul
